

Standards for Good News Club Teachers

A Child Evangelism Fellowship GOOD NEWS CLUB® TEACHER will. . .

- ◆ believe and annually sign the “Statement of Faith/Doctrinal Protection Policy” of CEF without reservation.
- ◆ be screened for the child protection policy.
- ◆ teach under the auspices of CEF supervision.
- ◆ have the assurance of salvation upon the authority of the Word of God.
- ◆ qualify as a spiritual Christian, including an exemplary prayer life and manifesting a Christ-controlled and disciplined life, both in word and deed.
- ◆ have a burden and vision to reach lost boys and girls.
- ◆ be apt to teach, a student of the Word, a wise disciplinarian, consistently presenting the Gospel into each Bible lesson and class session, conscientiously giving the invitation and leading boys and girls to Christ.
- ◆ be willing to teach CEF literature in the Good News Club.
- ◆ be trained with CEF methods and shall regularly attend the local CEF teacher training sessions.
- ◆ teach only with the approval of local or state director or board.
- ◆ attend and support as many CEF functions as possible (curriculum workshops, conferences, and other special functions).
- ◆ teach the importance of missions and encourage the boys and girls to pray for and give to CEF missionaries by using GNC banks.
- ◆ endeavor to channel unchurched children into a Bible teaching church.
- ◆ faithfully pray for each child who attends club, seeking others to be a prayer support by sharing praises and prayer requests on a regular basis.

